

Long Sutton Quaker Meeting House

Tercentenary Celebrations

8-9 July 2017

SATURDAY 8th

10.30am, Meeting House

Talk: Julian Orbach author of Pevsner Architectural Guides, on the architecture of the Friends Meeting House and other meeting houses of interest

12noon, Meeting House

Book Launch by Roger Iredale: Long Sutton Quakers: Over 300 Years

2.00pm, Village Hall

Illustrated talk: Quaker Tapestry by Jane Wilson, daughter of tapestry founder

3.30pm, Village Hall

Talk: Quaker Ceremonies by Richard Clark of Street Meeting

5.00pm, Village Hall

Purple Fields Productions present talk and extracts of the educational films that really do save lives in developing countries

SUNDAY 9th

11am-12.00pm, Meeting House

Meeting for Worship open to everyone

2.30pm, Village Hall

Play: The Bundle by Journeymen Theatre, about refugees (for 16+ years old)

There will also be exhibitions and tours of the meeting house, and simple lunches, refreshments and homemade cakes available throughout both days

For more information please visit facebook.com/lsmfh, call 01458 241325/223094, or email gill.greenfield@outlook.com or memontagu@cooptel.net